SAM RICE AND PAT GHARRITY GET HOME RUNS AS GRIFFMEN WIN, 7 TO 1

Erickson's Shoots Curb Sox; Fancy Fielding Plays Seen

McBride's Men Pound Bush and Fullerton for Thirteen Hits-Circuit Drives Furnish Needed Thrills.

By JACK NYE.

The home run crop, which was nothing much to brag about last season, is beginning to sprout early in Clark Griffith's garden patch

Sam Rice bounced a ball off the centerfield wall in the first inning of yesterday's game with the Red Sox, circled the bases with dazzling speed, and did a fadeaway across the plate a fraction of a second alread of the relay home. There was no one on the bases at the time. In the eighth inning Pat Gharrity duplicated the performance, except that his drive was to the remote corner in left field where the jury box and the pavilion fence connect. Pat sloughed heavily over the pan as Muddy Ruel snagged the ball and made a futile swipe in his direction. O'Rourke rode home ahead of Pat.

These were the high spots in the evening's entertainment, which the Griffmen won by the lopsided count of 7 to 1. The long armed Olaf Erickson did the pitching and made a pretty good job of it, as the score indicates.

York demonstrated today that he has enough real class to be considered one of the Cubs' regulars and it is likely that inside the next two weeks Evers will be starting him, in his regular turn.

Next to York's showing, that of Toporcer, playing second for the Cardinals, was probably the most brilliant. This youth made one putout and accepted two hard chances in the field without a miscue. But
